HOGG CONSTRUCTION, INC. EMPLOYEES RECOGNIZED BY AMERICAN SUBCONTRACTORS ASSOCIATION

York, PA— Hogg Construction, Inc. employees were recently honored by the American Subcontractors Association of Central Pennsylvania (ASACP). Larry Flinchbaugh, Superintendent and Safety Director, was awarded the prestigious “2008 Superintendent of the Year” and Kevin Inch, Senior Project Manager, was awarded the prestigious “2008 Project Manager of the Year” at the 11th annual ASA Constructor Awards Gala.

“It is an honor for Larry and Kevin to be recognized by our industry peers.” said James W. Hogg, President and Chief Executive Officer.

The American Subcontractors Association of Central Pennsylvania is a non-profit association of trade and specialty contractors based in Harrisburg, PA that has been in existence since 1969.

Founded in 1952, Hogg Construction specializes in design/build and general construction of religious facilities, supermarkets, retail centers, medical centers, senior living facilities, office buildings, hotels, banks and industrial facilities. Hogg Construction has received numerous awards for excellence in construction, safety, scheduling and owner satisfaction from the Associated Builders and Contractors (local and national), National Association of Industrial & Office Parks, Building Congress & Exchange and the American Institute of Architects.
